

SOE 6

September 14 2011

Dear Valued Members

For your information please see excerpt taken from the Guardian Newspapers on the new hot spots which will be under the curfew hours 11pm – 4am.

GUARDIAN STORY:

Effective 11 pm today, an additional 11 communities in Trinidad and its coastline are to be under curfew. This was revealed by Prime Minister Kamla Persad-Bissessar during a special news conference, after yesterday's six- hour National Security Council meeting at her St Clair office. The new areas under the 11 pm to 4 am curfew are:

Carli Bay in Couva,
Moruga,
Cedros,
Claxton Bay,
Maloney,
La Horquetta,
Windy Hill in Arouca,
Dow Village in California,
Toco, McBean in Couva,
Chase Village in Carapichaima.

Persad-Bissessar said: "In addition to these areas on land, we will also have the curfew imposed along the 362 kilometres off our T&T coastline and that will extend outward to three nautical miles." She said people engaged in legitimate business during the curfew hours could secure their curfew passes today. She said the decision to increase the areas under curfew was taken during yesterday's National Security Council meeting, based on intelligence reports.

THE MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS UNIT