Bridging the Labour Management Divide

09th April 2014

Dear Valued Members,

We are pleased to invite you to a Breakfast Meeting on Union Management Relations - "Bridging the Divide", on Friday May 10th, 2013 from 7:30am - 10:00 am at the Leon Agostini Conference Hall, Chamber Building, Columbus Circle West Moorings

The discussion will be focused on an important issue for all of us - i.e. the current state of affairs between Management and Labour and the need for a new Industrial Relations approach to negotiations, conflict resolution, and increased productivity.

This Breakfast Meeting is a collaborative effort between the Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce and HRC Associates. Feature Speaker, Dr. Michael Maccoby, President of the Maccoby Group of Washington is a world-renowned expert on leadership, strategy, and organization, and an extensively published author on labour relations. His revered opinion as well as his practical experience in building consensus and a more collaborative process in workplace dynamics will be valuable in helping to articulate requisite change and shared accountability for business delivery. Among his most referenced work is the famous AT&T article - 'AT&T: Cooperation is not Enough'.

The Registration Form, along with Dr. Maccoby's biography is attached for your convenience. For further information please see e-flyer below.
