T&T CHAMBER CEO RESTING COMFORTABLY AFTER MEDICAL PROCEDURE

The Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce wishes to advise that Chief Executive Officer, Ms. Catherine Kumar, will be out of office on extended leave, following a successful medical procedure yesterday.

We extend best wishes to Ms. Kumar for a swift recovery, and request kindly that her privacy be treated with the utmost respect while she recuperates.

During Ms. Kumar's absence, Mr. Navin Seeterram – currently Manager of Trade and Business Development – will act as Coordinator and main point of contact at the Chamber, ably supported by the Executive Team of the Board of Directors.

We assure our valued membership of our continued commitment to representing the interests of the business community in Trinidad during this interim period and thereafter.
