TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO CHAMBER OF INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE ANNOUNCES THE 2021 INDUCTEES TO THE BUSINESS HALL OF FAME

We are pleased to announce that Ms. Angela Lee Loy and Dr. Krishna Bhadoorsingh have been selected for induction into the Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce's Business Hall of Fame for 2021.

Ms. Angela Lee Loy is one of Trinidad and Tobago's most successful and experienced female entrepreneurs. She is a global business leader and a visionary based in the Caribbean. Ms. Lee Loy is involved in multiple industries across various sectors and disciplines. She is the Chairperson and Founder of Aegis Business Solutions Limited, the largest indigenous business consultancy in the English-speaking Caribbean, headquartered in Trinidad and Tobago. Angela left PricewaterhouseCoopers as a Partner to launch her own company in 2001 and has grown the business, gaining international clients and an international reputation. Today, Aegis stands shoulder to shoulder with the "Big 4" auditing firms. She is also a board member of several leading associations which reflects her years of experience and solid reputation as a trusted non-executive board advisor and respected business leader in the Caribbean. A small sample of these would include being a Past President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of the Caribbean, a former T&T representative of the International Assembly of Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and a non-executive director of Prestige Holdings Limited. In addition, she has previously chaired committees as diverse as the National AIDS Co-ordinating Committee, the Music Literacy Trust and the Social Justice Foundation.

Dr. Krishna Bahadoorsingh is considered a pioneer in the field of real estate development industry in Trinidad and Tobago. Since entering in the 1960s, Dr. Bahadoorsingh has become known as one of its stalwarts. He carved out a career as one of its leading proponents, with a passionate interest in merging the business of real estate development with concepts of community and family. Beginning with Westmoorings, where residential communities were joined with commercial enterprises through the setting of West Mall, as well as professional offerings, a new concept was introduced locally. From then, the communities he developed have changed the landscape of the areas where they are located, allowing thousands of residents to enjoy the warmth of community living with all the amenities of suburban town centres, including retail, commercial and leisure offerings. Beyond his industry, Dr. Bahadoorsingh's has served in several capacities demonstrating his commitment to country by his decade of service as an Independent Senator, a founding member and Deputy Chairman of the Urban Development Company of Trinidad and Tobago (UDECOTT, and a Past President of the Rotary Club of Port of Spain.

Ms. Lee Loy and Dr. Bahadoorsingh will join the ranks of 37 other iconic businesspeople who have been inducted into the T&T Chamber's Business Hall of Fame since 2005 at the Champions of Business Awards ceremony to be aired on November 19, 2021 starting at 8.00pm. Due to COVID-19 restrictions on gatherings, this year the Awards ceremony will again be conducted virtually. The event will be broadcast on television on CNC3 and live streamed inclusive of the induction, as well as presentations to recipients of awards in the other categories.

Champions of Business is one of the T&T Chamber's Signature Annual Events. The program awards and celebrates excellence in business in five main categories of Entrepreneurship, Business Technology, the newly introduced Green Agenda, Internationally Known...T&T Owned Company of the Year and the Business Hall of Fame.
