TTCIC ANNOUNCES INNOVATION FINALISTS FOR CHAMPION OF BUSINESS 2023

The Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce (TTCIC) has announced three finalists for the Champions of Business Innovation Award. This year's finalists YBMS Biotec Ltd, Epilimnion Aquaculture Ltd and Angostura Limited were revealed on October 3, 2023, during the TTCIC's Champions of Business True Stories episode.

One individual or company will receive the award that recognises a culture of improvement or innovation for customers through the use of technology, such as social media, virtual reality, blockchain or artificial intelligence. The use of such pioneering technologies would have had to productivity for customers, clients and businesses as well as contributed significantly to an improvement in the economy.

The True Stories episode also introduced the Entrepreneurship Award, in which the winner will be revealed on November 2, at the Gala Awards Finale. This award is presented to an individual or business established over the last eight years, and which has shown strong growth.

These awards are made possible through the kind sponsorship of bmobile BUSINESS - Innovation Award and Republic Bank - Entrepreneurship Award.

The TTCIC's Champions of Business was introduced in 2005 under the name Business Hall of Fame, Champions of Business — an Awards programme, and rebranded in 2014. As the award programme celebrates its 18th year, it continues to recognize a wide range of business achievements, including innovation, technological advancements, sustainability, internationalisation and legacy.

This year's theme is "Titans and Trailblazers" and with seven awards categories — Business Hall of Fame and Green Agenda, Internationally Known...T&T Owned Company of the Year, Breakthrough Exporter of the Year, Entrepreneurship, Innovation and SME.

Champions of Business Gala Awards Finale will be held at the National Academy for the Performing Arts (NAPA) on November 2, 2023, from 6:30 pm. The cost to attend is $995.00 + VAT. To book your attendance, e-mail: events@chamber.org.tt or call 637-6977 ext. 1308.
